Where do we get information from about our workforce?

A lot of the information we have about our workforce comes from the individuals themselves. However we may also obtain information from tax and regulatory authorities such as HMRC, previous employers, your trade union, the DBS, our insurance administrators, consultants and other professionals we may engage, recruitment or vetting agencies, other members of staff, students or their parents, and publically available resources including online sources. In addition we may obtain information from automated monitoring of our websites and other technical systems such as our computer networks and systems, CCTV and access control systems, communications systems, remote access systems, email and instant messaging systems, intranet and internet facilities, telephones, voicemail and mobile phone records.

Why do we use this information?

We will process the personal data of our workforce for the following reasons:

1. Where we are required by law, including:
 - To comply with the law regarding data sharing (see further below)
 - To comply with specific employment law requirements, including our obligations as an employer under employment protection and health and safety legislation, and under statutory codes of practice such as those issued by ACAS
 - To comply with legal requirements in relation to equalities and non-discrimination
2. Where we are required by any contract with our workforce, such as employment contracts, including:
 - To make payments to our workforce, such as salary payments
 - To deduct tax and National Insurance contributions
 - To make a decision about recruitment
 - To check individuals are legally entitled to work in the UK
 - Administering employment contracts
 - Conducting performance reviews
 - Making decisions about salary and compensation
 - Liaising with pension providers
 - Providing the following benefits:

3. Where the law otherwise allows us to process the personal data, or we are carrying out a task in the public interest, including:
 - To enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed
 - To inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
 - To safeguard our pupils and other individuals
 - To ensure safe working practices
 - In the interests of ensuring equal opportunities and treatment
4. Where we otherwise have the consent of the individual

Whilst the majority of processing of personal data of our workforce will not require consent, we will inform individuals if their consent is required and seek that consent before any processing takes place. Due to the imbalance of power in an employee to employer relationship, it is generally thought that although consent may be implied it cannot truly be freely given. So consent is not necessarily the most appropriate basis to rely upon as an employer.

Why do we use special category personal data?

We may process special category personal data of our workforce for the following reasons:

1. To carry out our legal obligations in relation to employment law, where this is in accordance with our Data Protection Policy
2. Where the processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, including for purposes of equality of opportunity and treatment, where this is in accordance with our Data Protection Policy.
3. For the purposes of preventative or occupational medicine in order to assess an individual's working capacity and/ or the need for reasonable adjustments.
4. Where we otherwise have an individual's explicit written consent – subject to the restriction set out above on the use of consent in an employment relationship.

There may also be circumstances where we need to use your information in relation to legal claims, or to protect your vital interests and where you are unable to provide your consent.

Failure to provide this information

If our workforce fail to provide information to us then this may result in us being unable to perform the employment contract, or we may be prevented from complying with our legal obligations.

How long will we hold information in relation to our workforce?

We will hold information relating to our workforce only for as long as necessary. How long we need to hold on to any information will depend on the type of information. For further detail please see the Information and Records Management Society's \(IRMS\) Toolkit for Schools adopted DfE best practice.

Who will we share information with about our workforce?
